

Malmesbury School Advert Assistant Headteacher - Sixth Form

Start date: 1 September 2022

Salary: Leadership Scale – L12-L15

School context: Mixed 11-18, comprehensive, Number on roll: 1425

Contract type: Permanent

'We are a Happy, Caring and Excellent School where staff are a high priority and, as a result, students thrive'

Malmesbury School is looking to appoint a dynamic and inspirational Assistant Headteacher to further develop our 6th form provision as part of our supportive, collaborative and forward-thinking Senior Leadership Team. This is an exciting opportunity for a talented, successful, and ambitious leader to gain promotion to a whole school leadership role in a large 11-18 secondary school within a happy and caring environment. Malmesbury School Sixth Form is a thriving community of students with a long history of excellent outcomes, both academically and pastorally. Please see the attached letter from Headteacher, Brett Jouny, that describes our sixth form in more detail.

Malmesbury School is a successful and growing 11-18 school with approximately 1,400 students on roll in the attractive town of Malmesbury, surrounded by stunning Wiltshire countryside with easy access to the M4. We enjoy excellent, modern facilities and offer unparalleled support and opportunities to staff who wish to develop their skills and leadership. In 2021 Malmesbury School was appointed as the Flexible Working Ambassador School for the South West of England.

At Malmesbury School our vision is to be a happy, caring and excellent community. We are proud to be a truly comprehensive school providing an education of the highest quality for all the students within Malmesbury and the surrounding area. In addition to the Athelstan Trust opportunities, teaching staff at Malmesbury School have a wealth of employee benefits including:

- An excellent induction programme including support for those returning to teaching/new to schools
- A comprehensive CPD programme including specialist training using external providers
- Coaching and mentoring support from senior leaders for those new to leadership roles
- A caring and supportive environment where wellbeing is a key priority - flexible working requests will be considered
- An Athelstan Trust newsletter that shares best practice and latest news
- A research informed Athelstan Trust CPD programme led by experienced staff across five schools
- Continual collaboration and sharing of resources to reduce workload and improve provision for students
- Excellent career progression opportunities
- An extensive enrichment and trip programme
- An on-site counselling service

The Athelstan Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust formed in 2015 currently consisting of five secondary schools (Malmesbury School, Bradon Forest School, The Dean Academy, Sir William Romney's School and Chipping Sodbury School) in Wiltshire, Gloucestershire and South Gloucestershire. All our schools share a deep commitment to delivering an excellent comprehensive education to all the students in the Trust. The Trust offers further career development opportunities for colleagues to work across more than one school in a supportive environment.

Please complete the trust application form on our school website and accompany this with a letter (of no more than two A4 sides) outlining your experience to-date and the particular strengths, interests and qualities that you could bring to the position. Please read the relevant job description. If you wish to discuss the role further please contact Jan Hainsworth at jhainsworth@malmesbury.wilts.sch.uk.

The closing date for applications is noon on Monday 31 January 2022 with interviews taking place on Monday 7 February 2022 and Tuesday 8 February 2022.

The Athelstan Trust is an equal opportunities employer. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share in this obligation. The successful candidate will be required to undertake an enhanced disclosure by the DBS. Please visit the school website for further information at www.malmesbury.wilts.sch.uk.
